HISTORIC MINNESOTA

A Four Part Series

Tour Two - Grand Rapids Area

August 5 - 7, 2016

DAY 1 Marshall / Grand Rapids

Arriving in Grand Rapids, we enjoy lunch before attending the 28th Annual White Oak Rendezvous & History Festival. Originally this was an annual event that the North West Co. held in the early 1800's where the voyageurs gathered for business, celebrations, and competing events. Step back in time and experience life in early Minnesota. *Evening Accommodations at Americinn Grand Rapids * Lunch Included*

DAY 2 Grand Rapids

We enjoy a leisurely paced morning before attending the Grand Rapids Farmer's Market. Then we are off to the Old Central School for shopping and time to explore the historic school. After lunch we make our way to the Forest History Center where history comes to life again at a turn of the century logging camp. *Evening Accommodations at Americinn Grand Rapids * Breakfast and Dinner Included*

DAY 3 Grand Rapids / Home

Before our tour concludes today we take a guided tour of the Minnesota Military Museum - Camp Ripley, located on the former site of the frontier Army post Fort Ripley. Breakfast Included

Prices Start At $449
